

Periodical Project Newsletter

5 Sept 2025

Here's what has happened since the beginning of the project and what's to come!

Welcome to our project newsletter! We are thrilled to share with you the latest developments in our mission to make a positive impact in Sustainable Digital Education and Training.

Firstly, we would like to express our gratitude to all of our stakeholders who have supported us in creation of the booklet and the self assessment tool. Your examples and feedback have allowed us to improve the quality of our project results.

In terms of our recent activities, we have successfully launched a the project website for trainers and pedagogical engineers and IT managers, purchasers and staff of training center. This website aims to give ressources and tools to the target group in social responsibility issues in digital practices.

We are also excited to announce that we started to build the reference sample of the self assessment tool. To be part of reference sample take the self assessment tool and complete the questionnaire with the seriousness and honesty it deserves – every response counts!

Together, we can have a sustainable digital developments.

Thank you for your continued support!

Good Practices Booklet - Inclusive and responsible Digitalisation in Training

7 qualities

Good practices containing one or more relevant qualities: Enabling, Inclusive, Innovative, Protective, Fair, Democratic and Frugal.

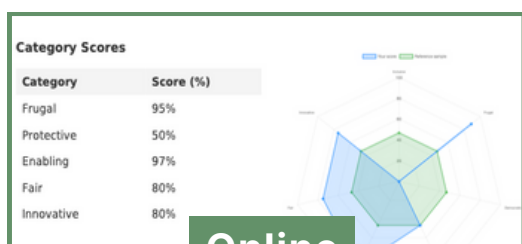

3 interviews

These interviews will give you the opportunity to read about the practical implementation of good practices.

47 case studies

These case studies are supported by links to resources detailing practical application, evaluation and conclusions.

If you are wondering what best practices you should prioritise in your own practice, take the self-assessment test and start reading the selected good practices from the booklet in the report that can inspire you.

Online

Self Assessment Tool

This month's mission is to create the reference sample of the self assessment tool.

Therefore, we invite all the stakeholders of the project to give answers to the questionnaire, the first 100 responses will create the reference group.

Let's take a moment to complete the self-assessment!
